

Schedule 1 Class Action – Filing a Claim

Did you live at a Schedule 1 institution?

Steel door in an institution

You may be able to get money from the Schedule 1 class action settlement if you send in a claim form by February 28, 2017. The list of institutions is at the end of this announcement.

Lawyers from ARCH Disability Law Centre can help with your claim for no cost. You need an appointment if you want their help.

ARCH lawyers will be at:

40 Birch Ave

Community Living Toronto

Wednesday August 10

The first appointment is at 10 am. The last is at 3 pm. Please contact Sue Hutton shutton@cltoronto.ca to book an appointment.

Please bring to the appointment:

- Your photo ID. If you do not have photo ID, bring any of your other ID.
- You might have got papers about Schedule 1 in the mail. Please bring those papers to the appointment.

If you cannot come on that day, please call ARCH for an appointment:

- Phone: 1-866-482-2724

- TTY: 1-866-482-2728

If you are not sure if you lived at a Schedule 1 institution, call ARCH for help.

Here are the 12 Schedule 1 institutions that are in the settlement:

- St. Lawrence Regional Centre in Brockville
- D’Arcy Place in Cobourg
- Adult Occupational Centre in Edgar
- Pine Ridge in Aurora
- Muskoka Centre in Gravenhurst
- Oxford Regional Centre in Woodstock or in the “Mental Retardation Unit” or “MR Unit” of the Oxford Mental Health Centre
- Midwestern Regional Centre in Palmerston
- L.S. Penrose Centre in Kingston
- Bluewater Centre in Goderich
- Durham Centre for Developmentally Handicapped in Whitby
- Prince Edward Heights in Picton
- Northwestern Regional Centre in Thunder Bay