Connecting Families

Full Day Conference For Families

Saturday, March 23, 2013

Japanese Canadian
Cultural Centre

6 Garamond Court, Toronto
(Eglinton and Don Mills area)

Join us!

For a comprehensive day that will provide you with information and tools from funding and supports to financial and legal planning, for individuals and families as they journey through all stages of life.

Information tables will also be set up to highlight various resources available from Community Living Toronto, community agencies and corporate partners.

This conference is presented in partnership with ConnectABILITY.ca and the Fundraising and Public Relations department of Community Living Toronto.

ConnectABILITY.ca is a website and virtual community dedicated to lifelong learning and support for people who have an intellectual disability, their families and support networks.

Continue the conversation on Connected Families

This is a place for YOU to talk and connect about everything from the little stuff to the really big stuff. How your school problems, found resources and found ways to make your dreams happen.

Tell your stories, your ideas, your successes and even your frustrations. Share your tips to help others succeed and find tips that could help you.
